我的街道

北京 BEIJING

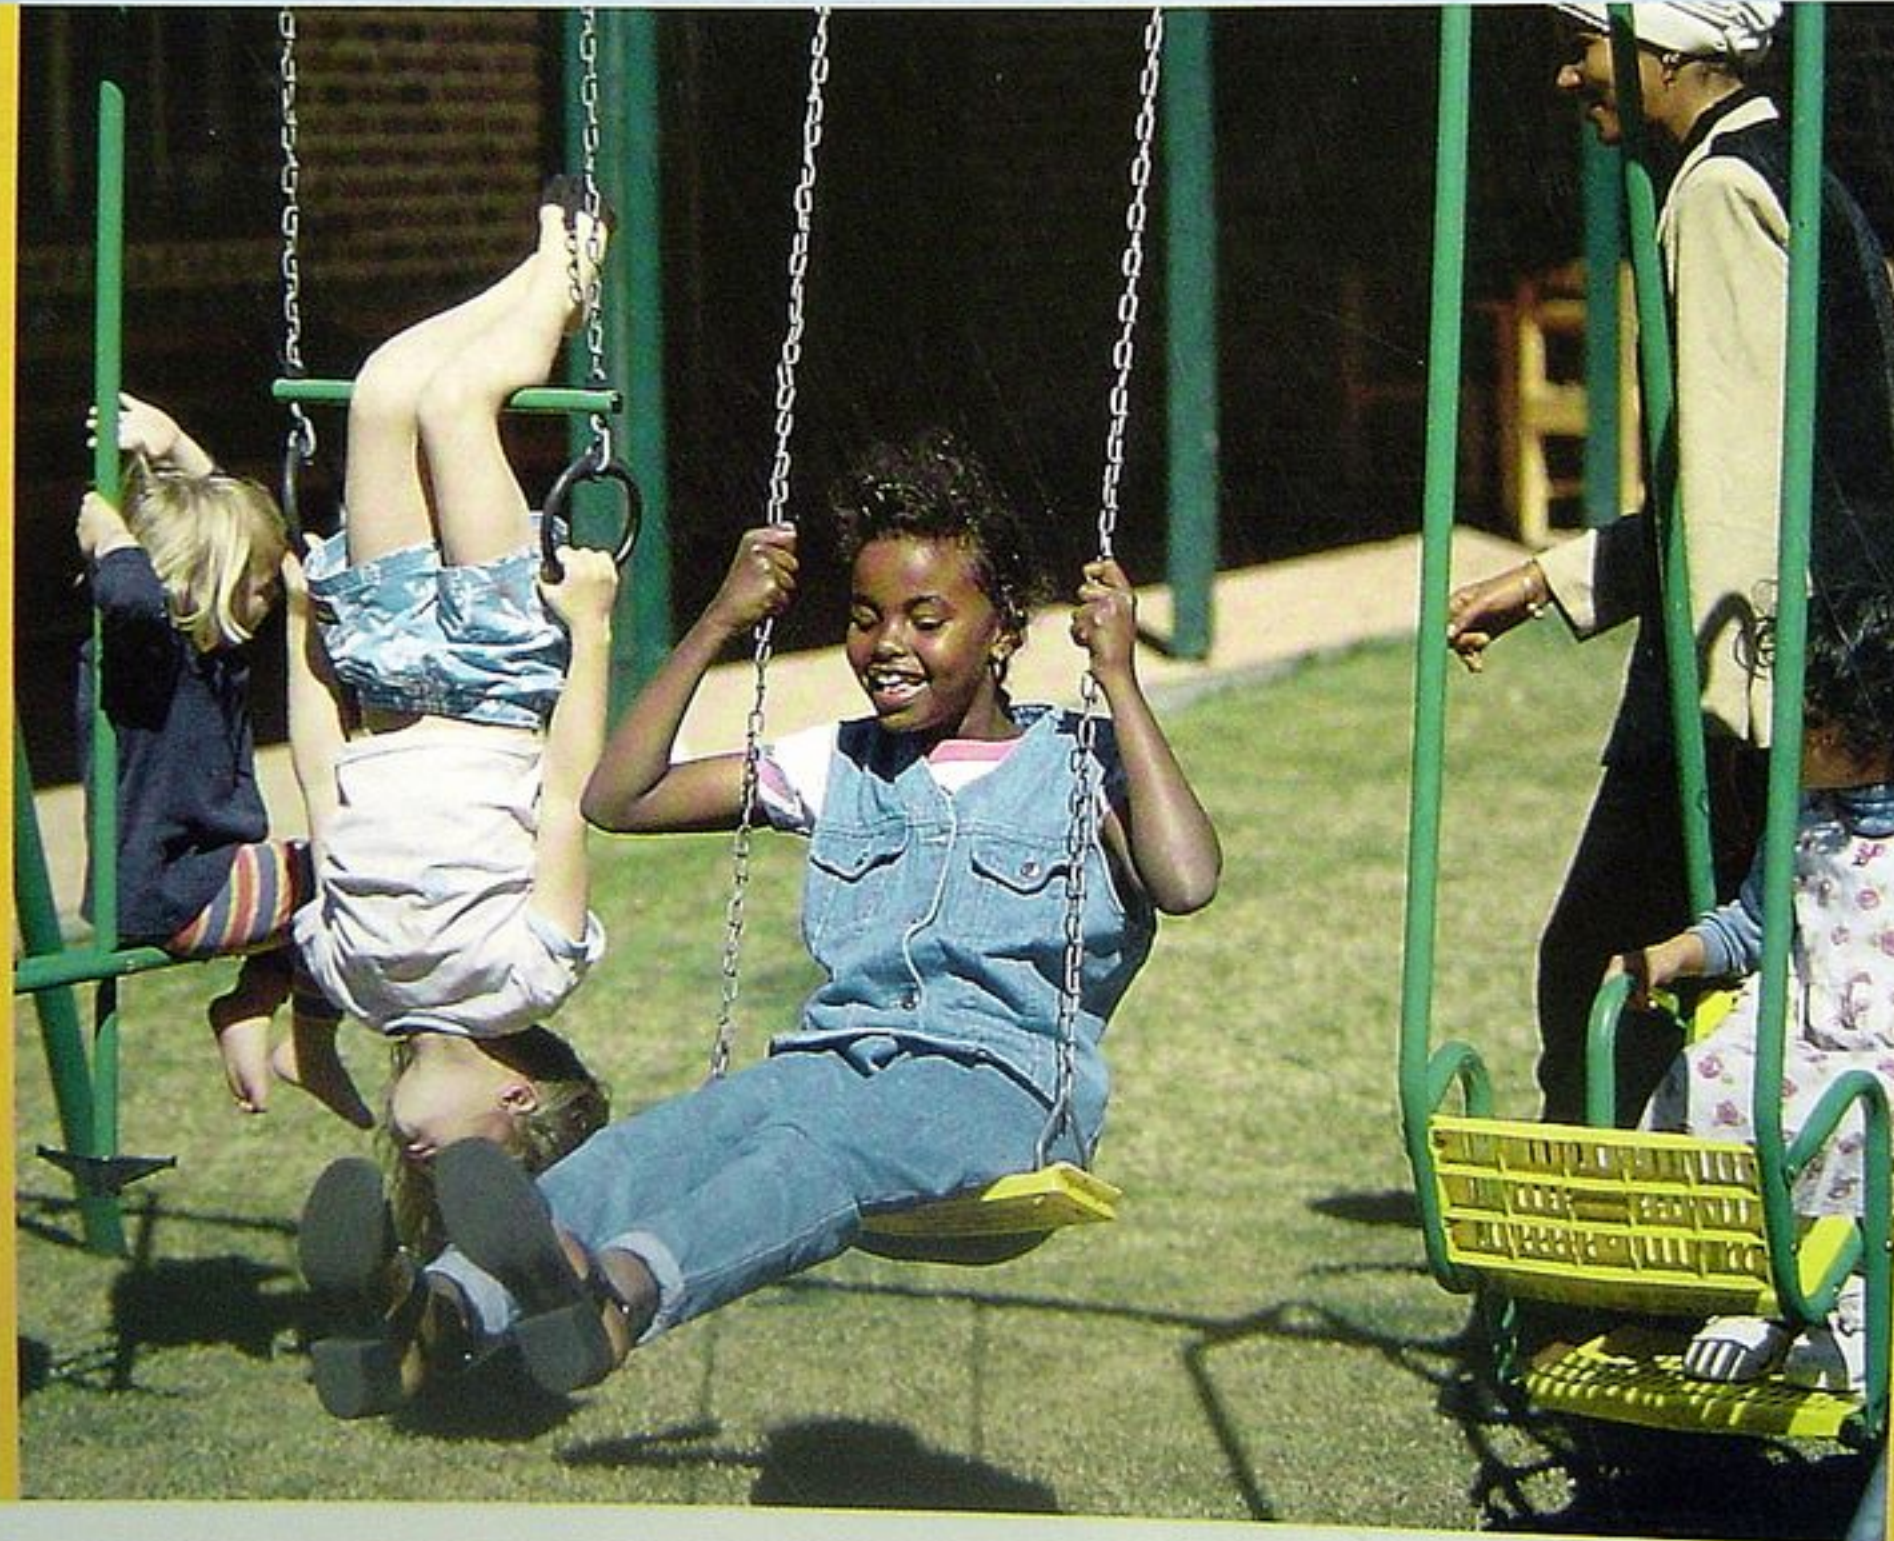

This is my street.
I live in the house with the blue door.
There are many houses on my street.

This is my friend Becky's street.
Becky lives in the tall building.
She lives in an apartment.
There are many apartment buildings on Becky's street.

This is where I play.
I play in my yard.
Sometimes my friends play in my yard with me.

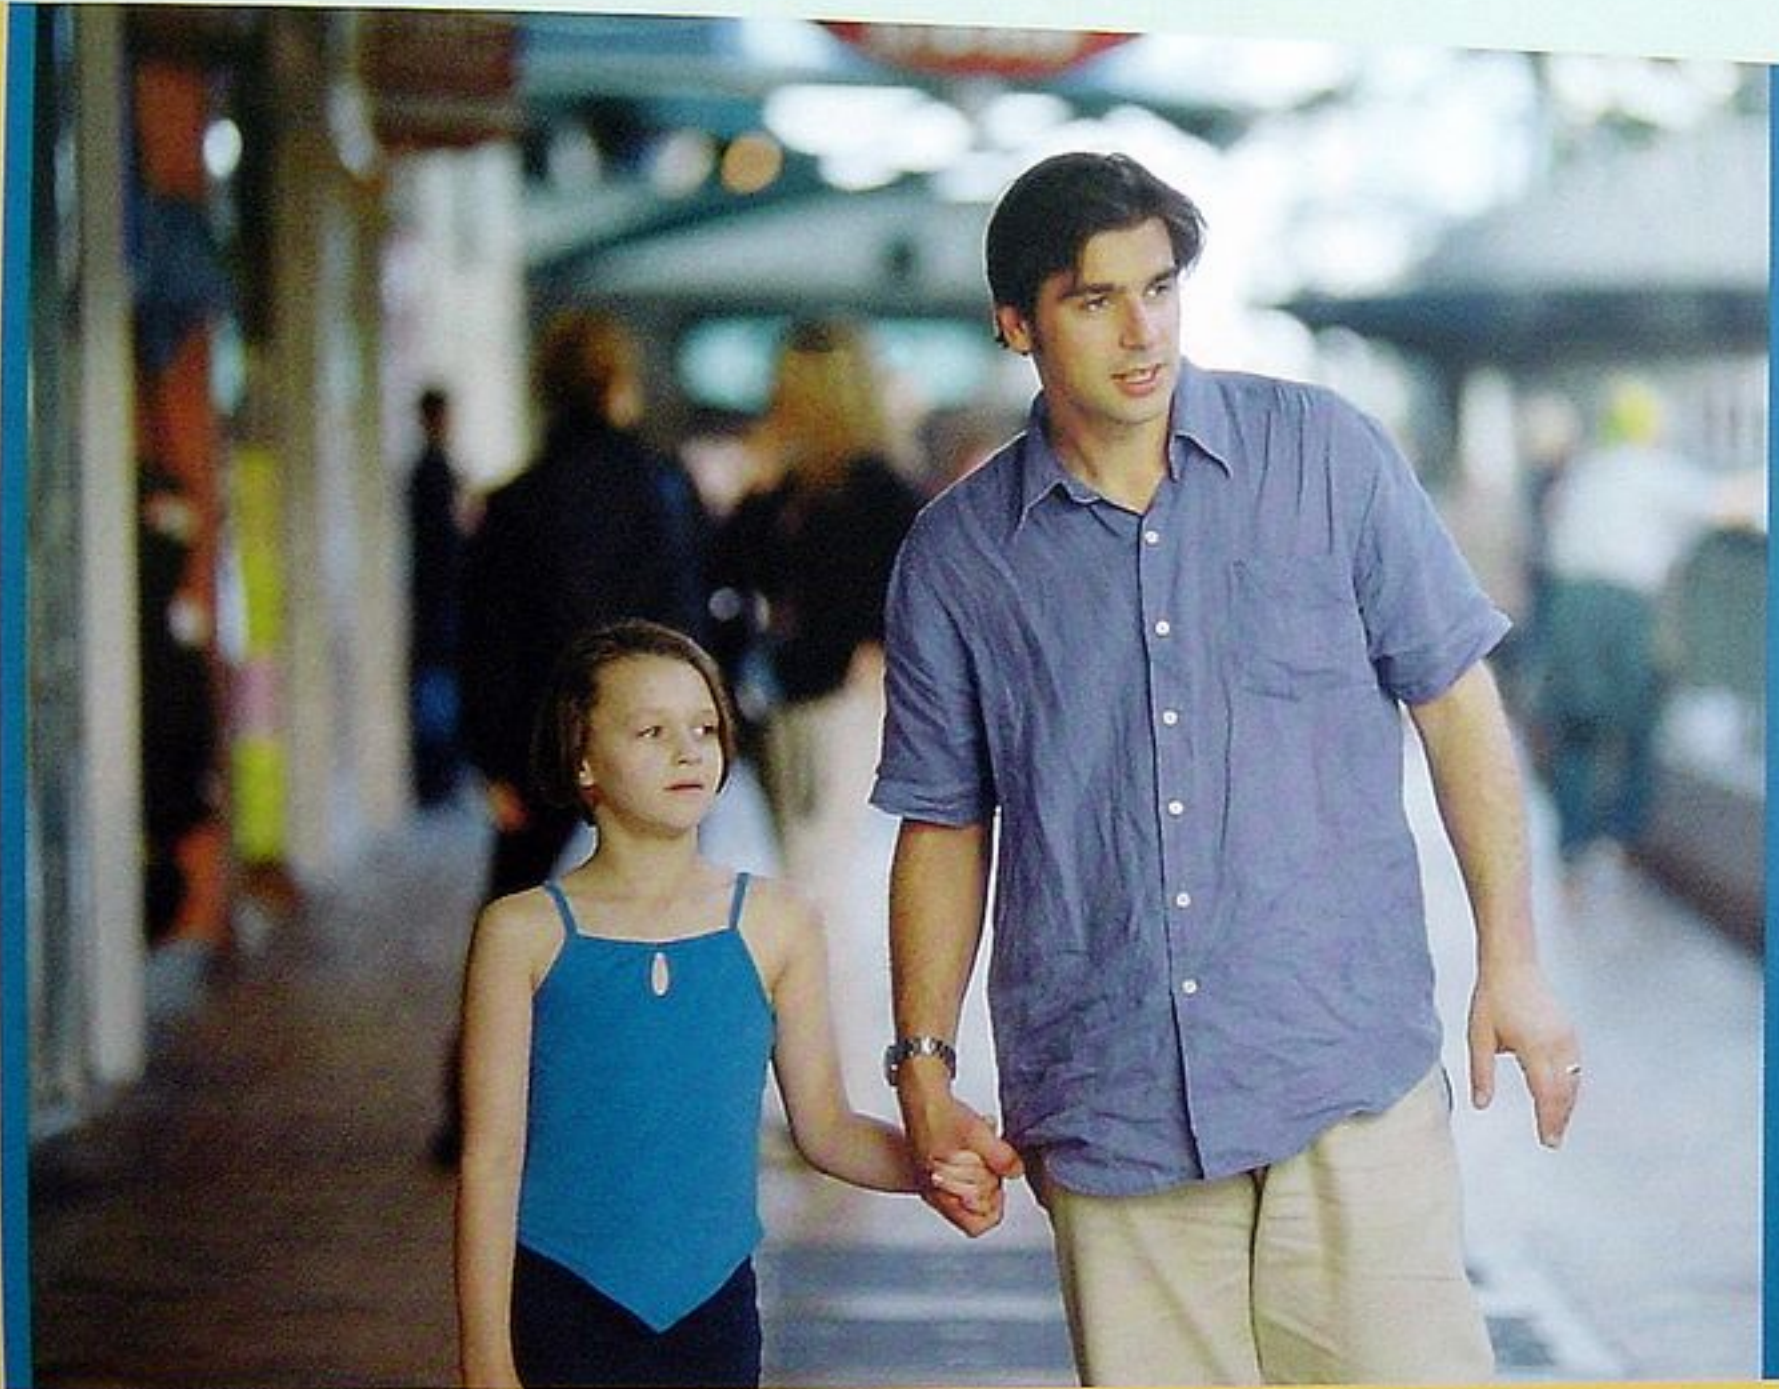

This is where Becky plays.
She plays in the park.
The park is near her apartment building.
Her friends play in the park with her.

When I go shopping with my dad,
we take the car.
We go shopping at the mall.
The mall is across town.

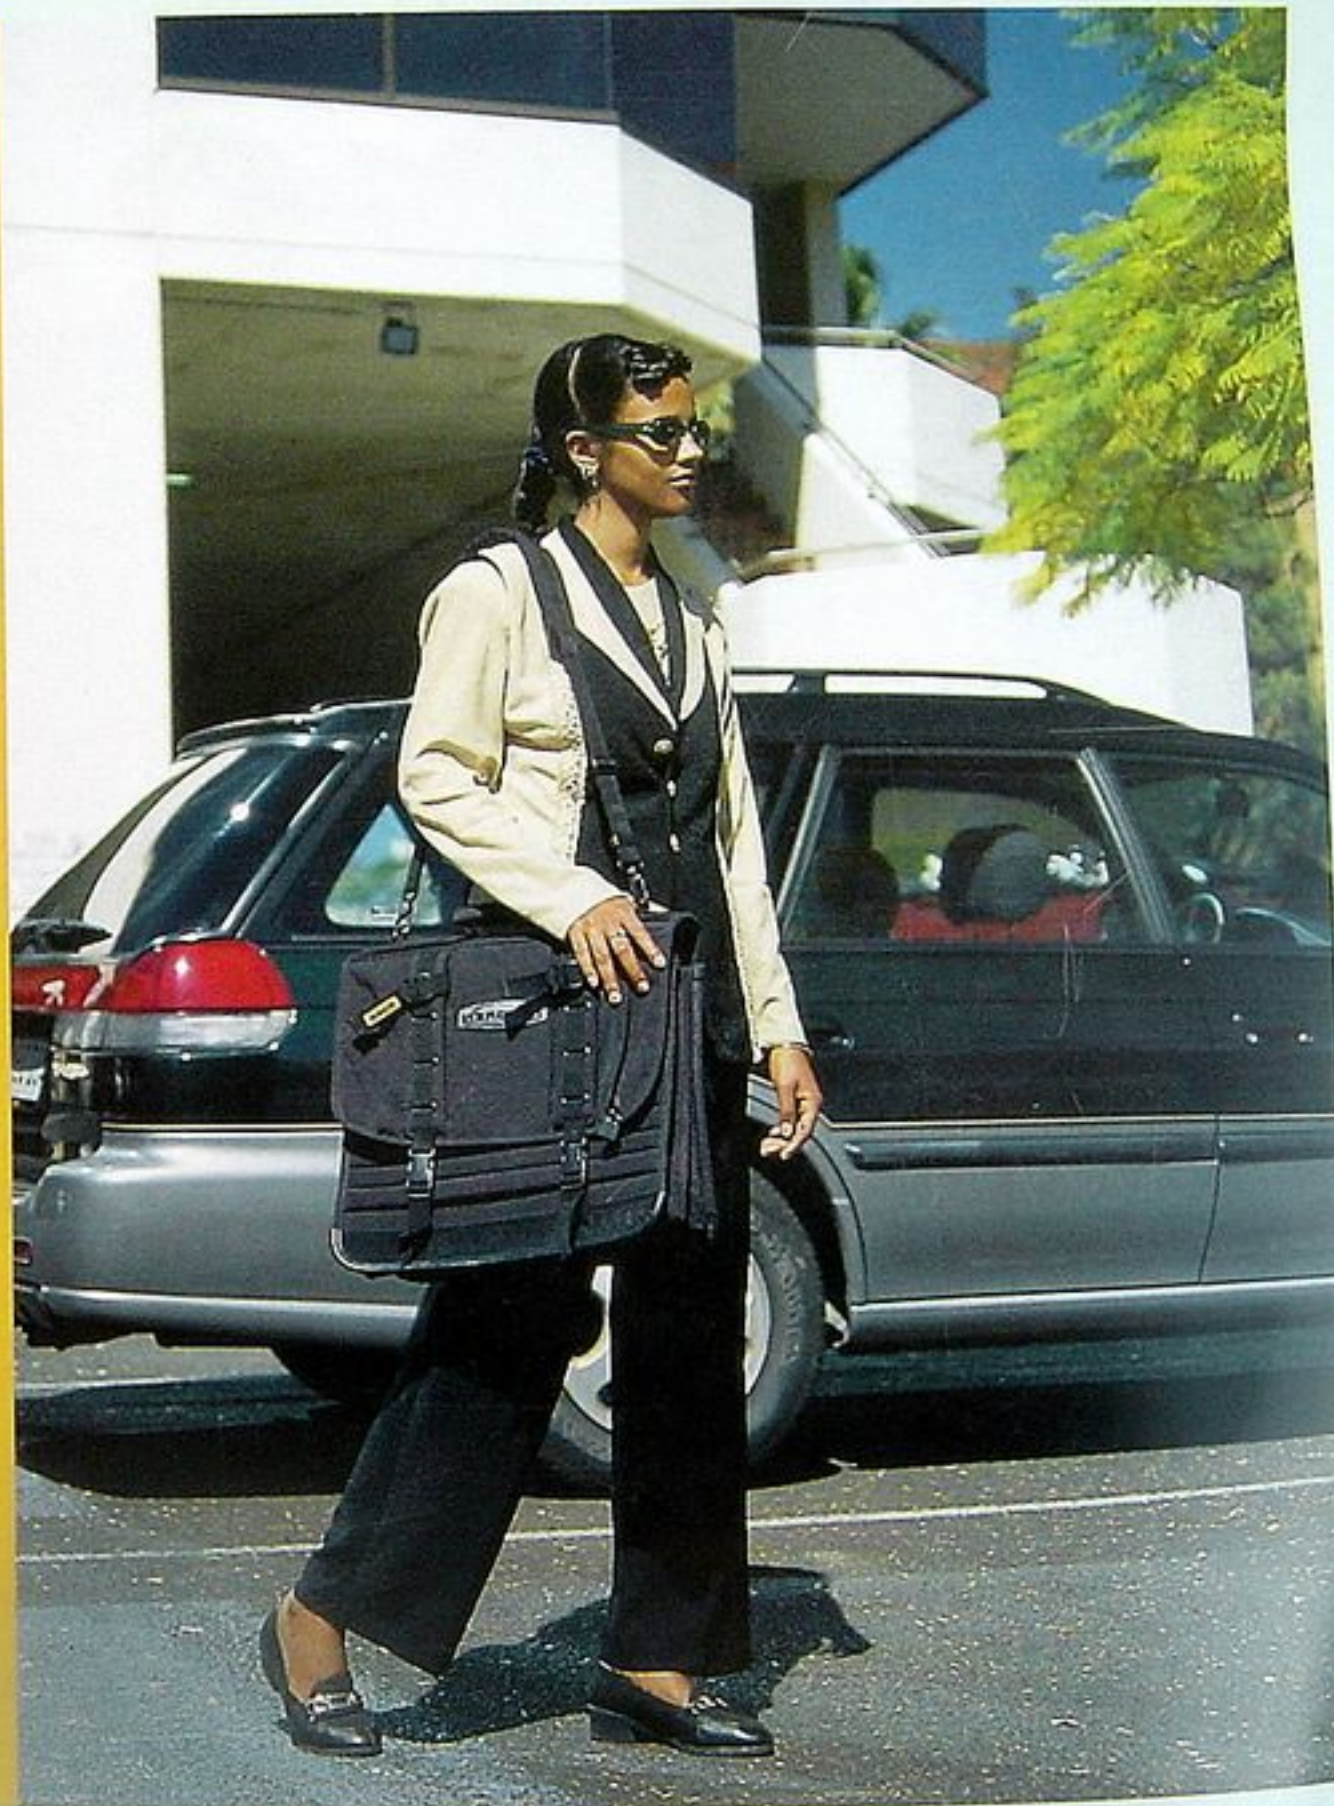

When Becky goes shopping with her dad,
they walk to the stores.
The stores are close to their apartment building.
There are many stores on Becky's street.

When my mom goes to work,
she drives the car.
Her office is across town.

When Becky's mom goes to work,
she takes the subway.
Her office is across town, too.

Becky likes to visit my house in the suburbs.
I like to visit Becky's apartment in the city.
