Work Vehicles

交通工具

Joseph Ciciano (美) 著

How do people decide what kind of vehicle to drive?
Many people choose a vehicle
that is good for their work.

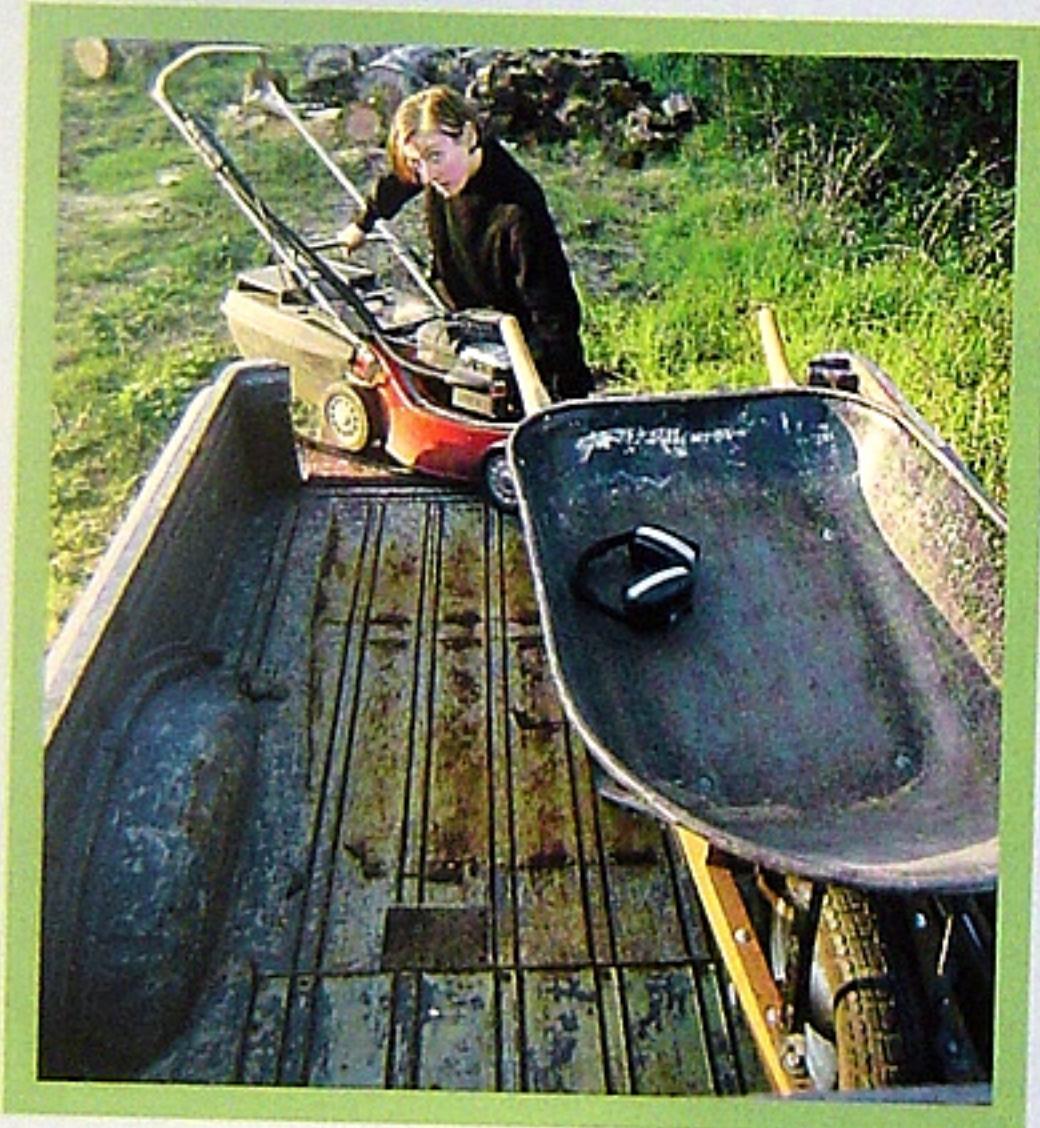

I am a gardener.
I mow lawns and take care of plants.
Do you know which vehicle
I drive at work?

I need a vehicle that can carry
my lawn mower.

I need a vehicle that can carry
plants and tools.

I drive a pick-up truck at work.

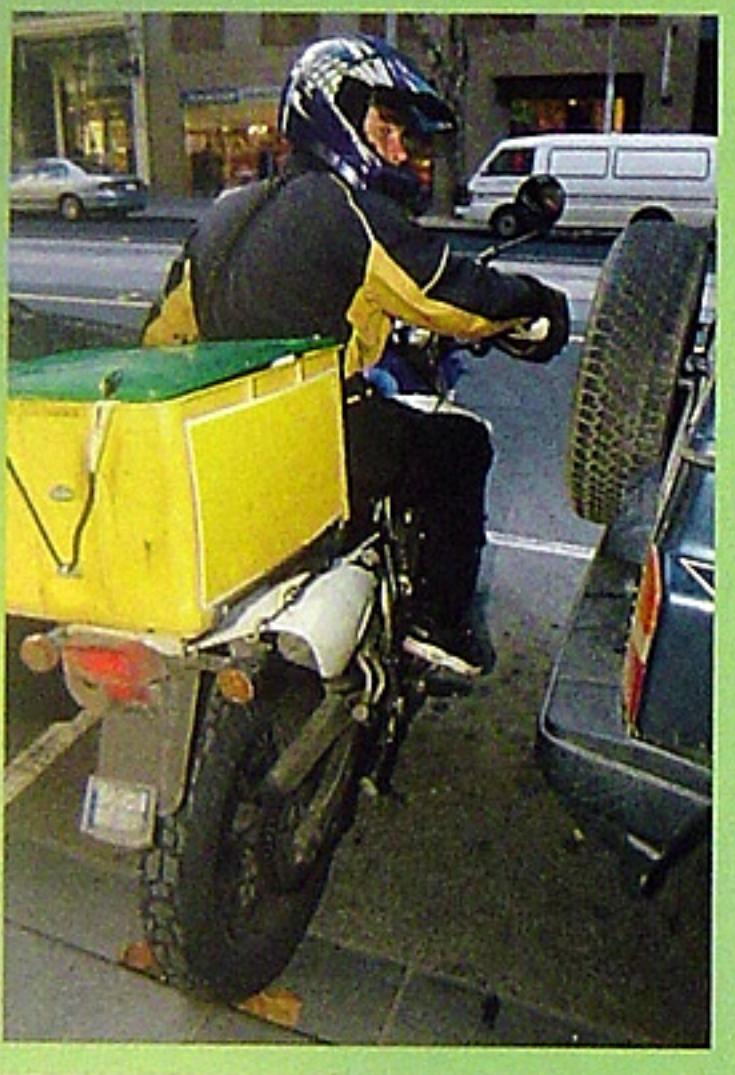

I am a messenger.
I deliver packages all over the city.
Do you know which vehicle
I drive at work?

I need a vehicle that is easy to park.
I need a vehicle that can carry
small packages.
I drive a motorcycle at work.

I am a nurse.
I visit patients in their homes.
Do you know which vehicle
I drive at work?

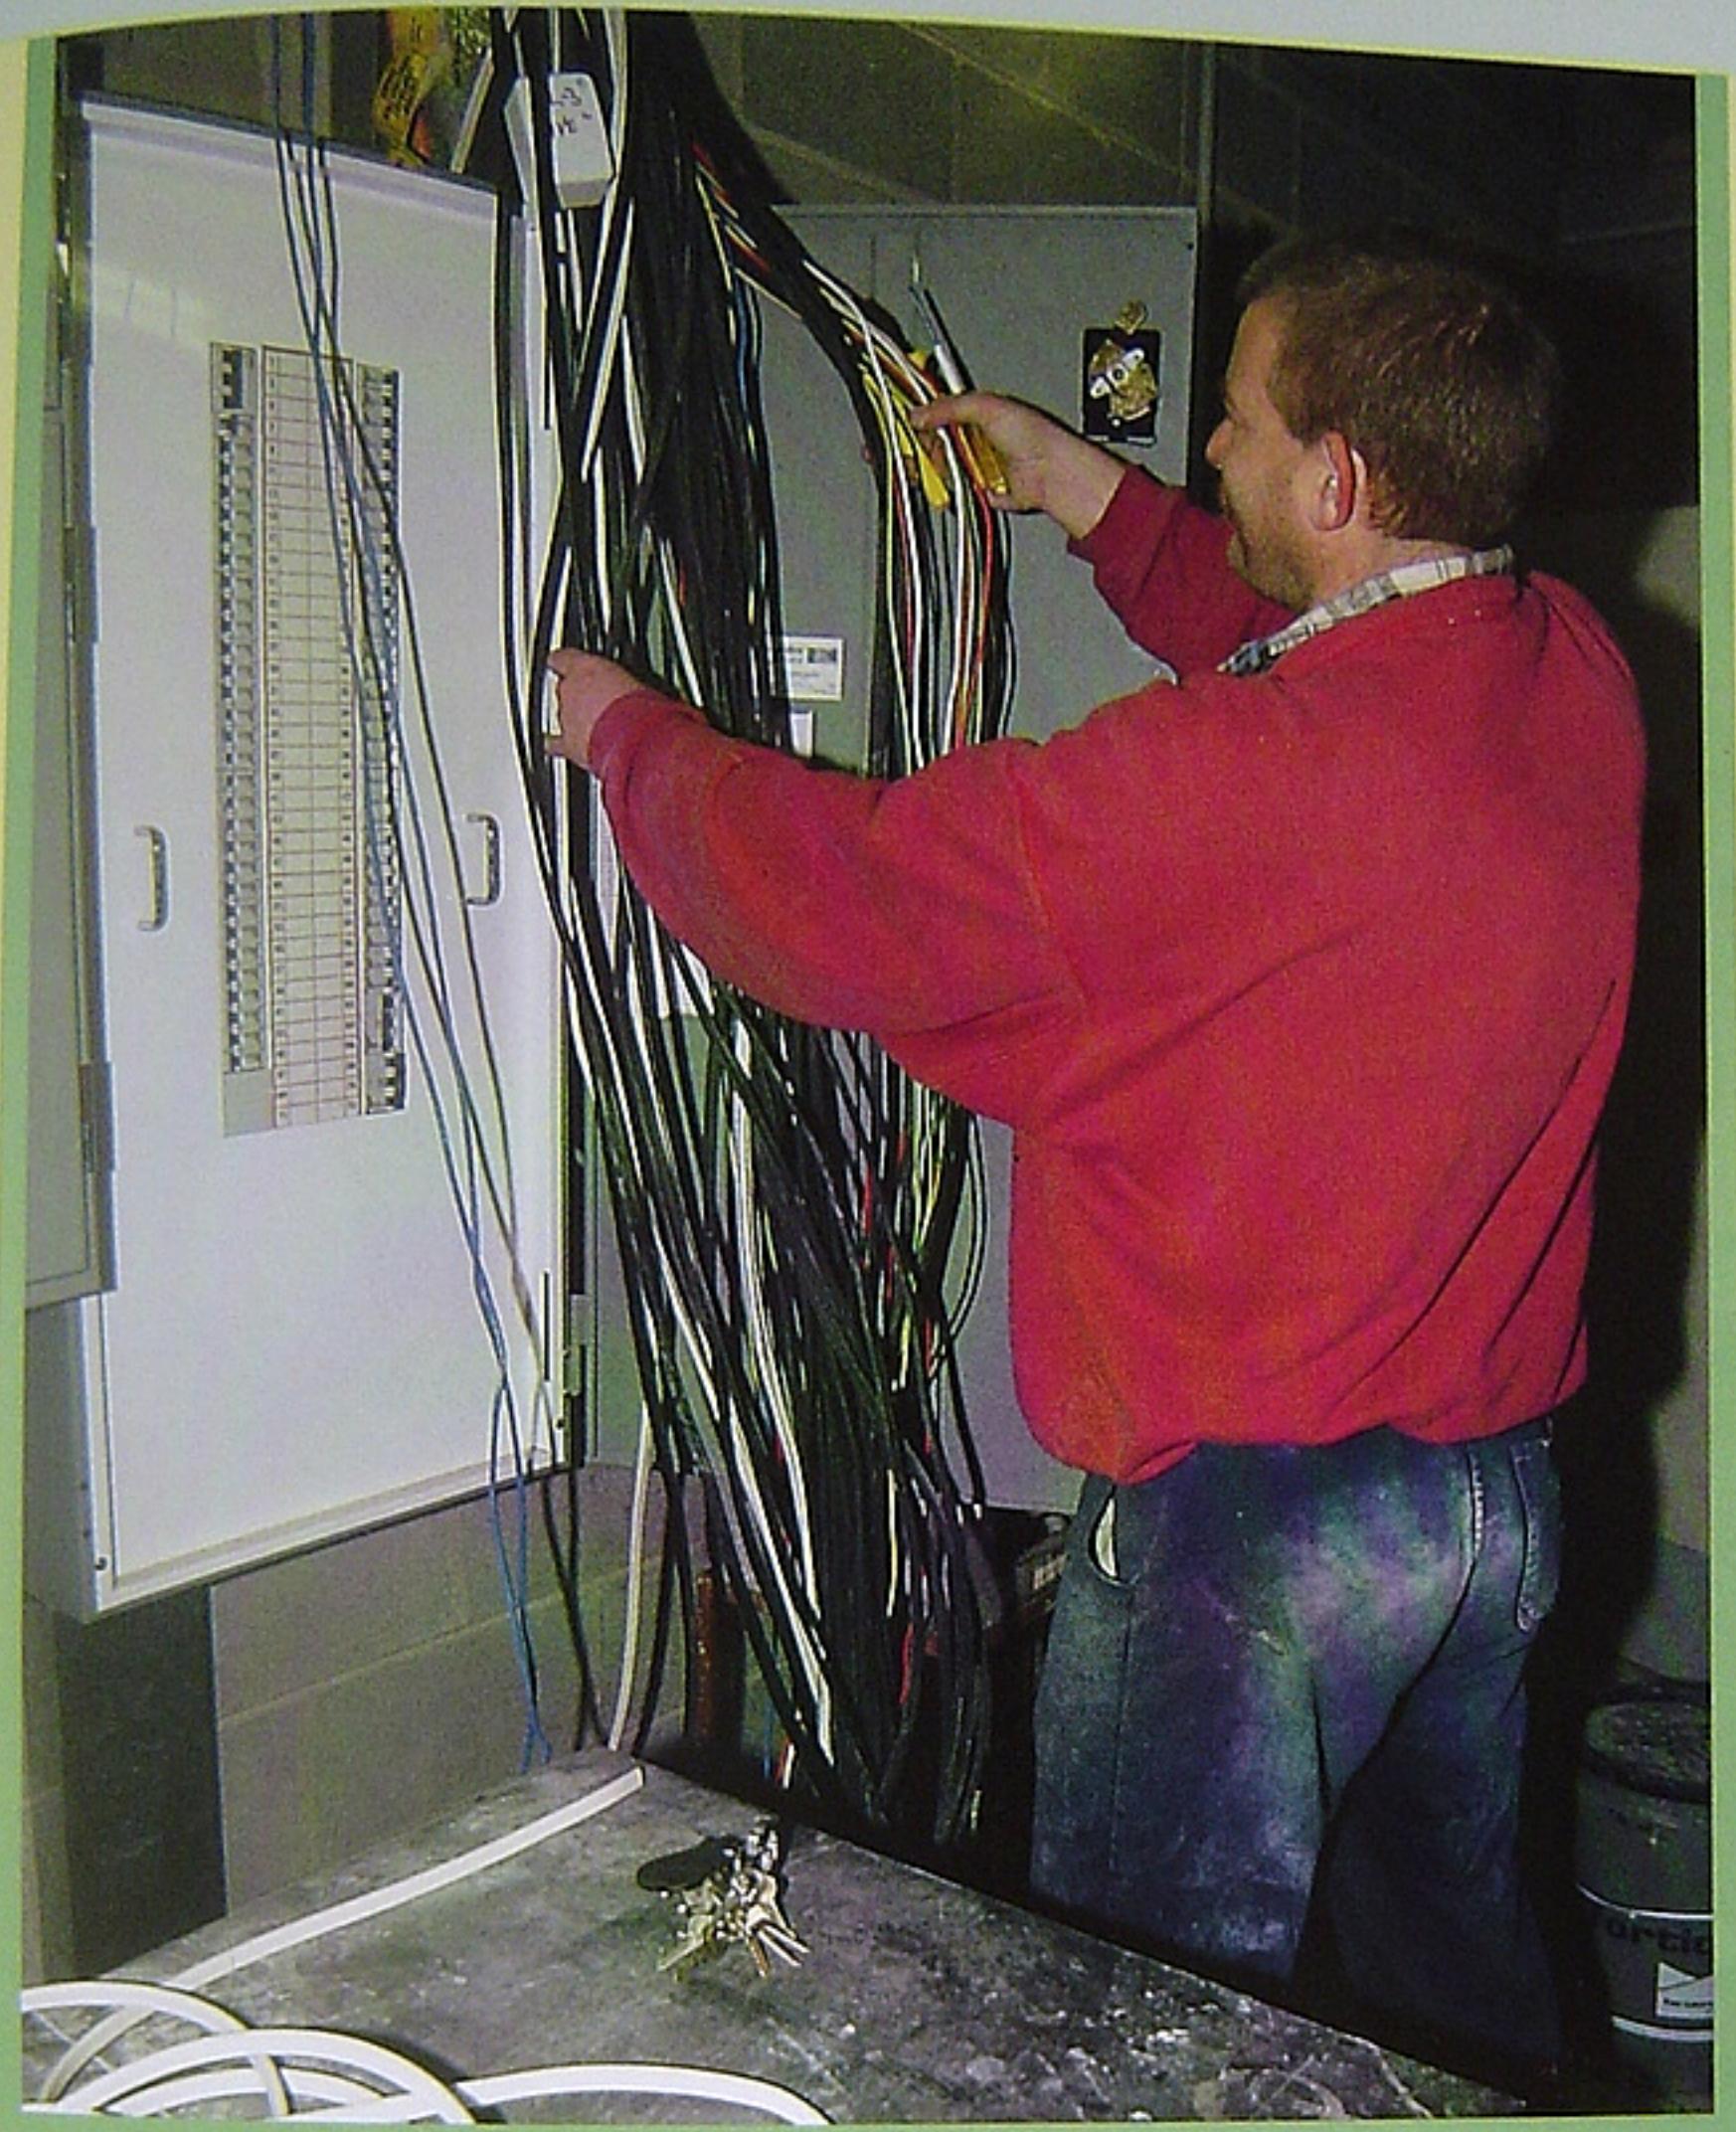

I need a vehicle that can get me
to places quickly.

I need a vehicle that can carry
my work bag.

I drive a car at work.

I am an electrician.
I fix the wiring in people's homes.
Do you know which vehicle
I drive at work?

I need a vehicle that has lots of space.

I need a vehicle that can keep my tools dry.

I drive a van at work.

I am a chauffeur.
I take people places.
Do you know which vehicle
I drive at work?

I need a vehicle that can seat
many people.

I need a vehicle that is comfortable to ride in.

I drive a limousine at work.
